Do you know of a free/cheap space/house that could host 15-20 people for a day or for a three-day retreat?

Email your friends and invite them to a concert/info session/fundraising.

Could you contact papers, magazines, radio and TV stations and ask if they want to write about us? Or maybe you know a journalist who would be interested in what we do.

Do you have contacts in schools, universities, or other organizations that might be interested in our Education presentations?
